This new feature will add to the worth of Miss Berry's already excellent school.

THE KING'S DEPARTURE.

His Majesty the King, accompanied by H. H. Prince Kawanakoa, left for Kailua, Hawaii, at noon to-day by the steamer W. G. Hall to be absent about two weeks. When His Majesty drove to the wharf, attended by Vice-Chamberlain Robertson, he was received by Hous J. O. Dominis and A. S. Cleg-horn, the four Cabinet Ministers, the British and Portuguese Commissioners and several members of the Consular corps, the band playing Hawaii Ponoi. Soon after the steamer left her dock the Royal standard was hoisted at the mainmast, and then there was such a booming of cannon as is seldom heard in Honolulu. The five warships in the naval road manned their yards and four of them fired royal salutes. They were all gaily decorated with bunting and as the W. G. Hall passed them cheers were given by the sailors on the yards. A salute was also fired from the shore battery at Kakaako. The Hawaiian flag was flying from the mainmasts of all the war vessels.

ROYAL BALL.

A Brilliant Assemblage at Iolani Palace.

The King Entertains Admiral Kimberly and the Officers of the Six War-Vessels in Port.

The ball given by His Majesty the King at Iolani Palace last evening to Admiral Kimberly and his staff and the Captains and Officers of the six men-of-war in port was a most brilliant and successful affair in every respect. The grand hallway had been decorated by artistic hands with flowers, evergreens and potted ferns and palms. On the walls on either side were banks of ferns spangled with roses and other flowers. Every detail seems to have been considered with regard to its artistic fitness, making a general effect that was most bewitching. The throne room where the reception and dancing took place was brilliantly illuminated with electric lights casting forth their radiance from crystal chandeliers. Soon after the dancing commenced the scene in the throne room almost baffles description, the brilliant toilets of the ladies intermingling with the full dress uniforms of the naval officers presenting a scene dazzling to the eye.

The invited guests began to arrive shortly after half-past eight o'clock and were received at the grand entrance by Col. R. H. Baker, Major J. D. Holt and Capt. E. K. Lilikalani, of His Majesty's staff, and shown to the dressing-rooms. About twenty-five minutes past 9 o'clock Admiral Kimberly and his staff arrived, the Hawaiian band stationed on the front veranda playing the "Star Spangled Banner." A few moments later their Majesties the King and Queen descended the grand staircase and entered the throne room, the band playing Hawaii Ponoi. His Majesty the King was in evening dress and wore several decorations. The Queen was attired in a handsome dress of red satin with white embroidered skirt. She wore diamond ornaments and a decoration. Her Majesty was attended by Mrs. J. W. Robertson, the Vice-Chamberlain's wife.

Their Majesties stood on the dais and received the guests, the naval officers entering the throne room first. Col. the Hon. Geo. W. Macfarlane, H. M.'s Chamberlain, in the staff uniform, and Mr. J. W. Robertson, H. M.'s Vice Chamberlain, were in attendance upon the royal host, and the general arrangements entrusted to their hands were as perfect as could be. After the reception dancing commenced to the strains of the Hawaiian string band.

The programme of dances was as follows: 1 Lancers, 2 Waltz, 3 Polka, 4 Lancers, 5 Waltz, 6 York, 7 Lancers, 8 Waltz, 9 Schottische, 10 Lancers, 11 Waltz, 12 Galop. Refreshments were on a scale of regal magnificence. Long tables extended down the grand banquet room and across its head. They were crowded with the most toothsome products of the culinary art. Floral decorations were frequently interspersed among the viands, while melons and luscious fruits also were in decorative array. Excellent coffee and other beverages were served with the collation, ice cream topping off the refectory with all so inclined. Besides a large corps of waiters, gentlemen looked after their fair partners' wants, so that at the height of the feast there was an absence of disagreeable crowding about the groaning boards. During the main intermission for refreshments the utmost sociability reigned supreme in the gay company spreading from the halls out to the cool verandas.

Among those present were noticed: Hon. John O. Dominis, Hon. A. S. Cleg-horn, Their Highnesses Princes Kawanakoa and Kalaniano'ole, Their Excellencies S. M. Damon, Minister of Finance, Jona. Austin, Minister of Foreign Affairs and C. W. Ashford, Attorney-General, Hon. John L. Stevens, U. S. Minister Resident; Major J. H. Wodehouse, H. B. M.'s Commissioner; Mons. G. B. d'Anglade, French Commissioner; Senhor A. de Souza Canavarro, Portuguese Commissioner; Mr. Taro Ando, Japanese Consul General; Hon. H. W. Severance, U. S. Consul General; Admiral L. A. Kimberly and his staff officers, Lieuts. H. O. Ritzenhouse and G. A. Merriam, Capt. J. G. Green and officers of the U. S. S. Alert, Commander H. W. Lyon and officers of U. S. S. Nipsic; Captain Sir William Wiseman, Bart., and officers of H. B. M. S. Caroline, Capt. A. Clarke and officers H. B. M. S. Espiegle, Capt. S. Matsumura and officers H. I. J. M. S. Hi-yei, Capt. K. Samejima and officers H. I. J. M. S. Kon-go; Members of the Consular corps, Privy Council of State, and a large number of the prominent residents of Honolulu.

OPINIONS - OF - THE - PRESS

—ON THE—

New Free Tontine Policy

—OF THE—

Equitable Life Assurance Society

—OF THE UNITED STATES—

A SIMPLE PROMISE TO PAY.

[From the NEW YORK TIMES, June 22, 1889.]

The Equitable Life Assurance Society has adopted a new form of policy which, like a bank draft, is a simple promise to pay without conditions on the back.

[From the CHICAGO INVESTIGATOR.]

Always on the alert, and ever anxious to give the public the most advantageous contract in life insurance, the Equitable Life Assurance Society of New York has, in the past, made many advances on old methods, and has been the means to liberalize life insurance in a greater degree, perhaps, than any other organization. It is not at all surprising, therefore, that this great company now comes before the people with a new contract, the like of which has not before been known in life insurance.

[From the KENTUCKY REGISTER, Richmond, Ky., June 28, 1889.]

The Equitable Life Assurance Society has, in the past, done more to create and maintain confidence in life insurance than any other company. Consequently its business is larger than that of any of its competitors. Furthermore, it has now taken a step which practically sweeps every objection of the character referred to out of the way. The result, undoubtedly, will be that thousands of men who have heretofore lacked confidence in life insurance, will examine the new policy offered by the Equitable, and assure their lives forthwith.

[From the BOSTON POST.]

This company has done more than any other to simplify the assurance contract, and to maintain public confidence in life insurance.

[From the PACIFIC UNDERWRITER, San Francisco, July 1, 1889.]

The Equitable has already established a world-wide reputation for liberal dealings with its policy-holders and for its prompt settlement of all legitimate claims against it, and this new policy cannot fail to enhance its reputation for enterprise and progressiveness in dealing with the subject of life insurance.
